Cookies

All browsers offer "cookies" and if you permit their use, they will store small amounts of data on your computer about your visit to the site that placed the cookie. A cookie is a small text file. It is not a program, or a plug-in. It could not be used as a virus, and it cannot access your hard drive. Cookies simply assist in tracking which features you like the most and allow content to be customized upon your return, according to prior preferences at that site. They would not gather or hold any personal information.

At Clickads, we may use cookies to store your password so you don't have to re-enter it each time you visit our sites.

Clickads will NOT:

- Use cookies to identify, monitor or track any personally identifiable information.
- Have cookies that contain any personally identifiable information about you.
- Merge or associate our cookie information with any other visitor's confidential and identifiable data obtained by us or from 3rd parties. You also have flexible choices in respect to cookies. By simply modifying your browser preferences, you have the right to choose whether to accept all cookies, to be notified when a cookie is set or to reject all cookies. For more information on how to modify your browser settings in order to block or filter cookies, please visit <http://www.cookiecentral.com/faq/>.

However, please note that if you reject some or all cookies, your experience at our sites and on other sites throughout the web may not be complete. Some sites require cookies to function, such as those with e-commerce features. In addition, if you disable cookies, you will not be eligible to take advantage of personalized content delivery offered by us or other Internet sites.

Third Party Cookies At Our Sites

While we use cookies in other parts of our website, cookies received with the payment process are placed by our payment service provider. We do not have access to these cookies or any information that they may contain. Please contact the payment service provider for more information as noted above.

Registration Forms

Our site's registration form requires users to provide contact information, such as their name, email, and postal address. This contact information is only used to get in touch with the customer when necessary and is never sold or shared.

External Links

This site contains links to other sites. Clickads is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of the websites you visit once you have left our site. We only link to general audience sites but cannot be responsible for any redirection or content changes over which we have no control. Please contact us immediately if there is a problem with any of our links.
